General History of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The Diocese of Vincennes—now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis—was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the erection of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph and Warren Counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing fifty counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River, and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by Apostolic Brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the See City. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By Apostolic Brief dated March 28, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief, the Patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana becoming the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a Suffragan See.

Parish Life Coordinators

In the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, in accord With the Canon Law of the Catholic Church, we have developed a pastoral leadership position which we call PARISH LIFE COORDINATOR. The parish life coordinator is a lay person who has the pastoral care of a parish or mission entrusted to him or her. This lay person works with a priest moderator and a priest minister to provide pastoral and sacramental care to the parish.

According to Canon Law, there two types of persons in the church: ordained and non-ordained. We commonly refer to the non-ordained as lay people. Lay people do include men and women religious who have made vows and belong to religious congregations.

The parish life coordinator is responsible for the day-to-day pastoral care, liturgical life, faith development, social services, and administration of the parish. These pastoral responsibilities are assisted by a priest moderator, who serves as a mentor and guide for the parish life coordinator. The Priest moderator also supervises and advises the parish life coordinator on matters of administration and parish life.

Recognizing that the administration of the Sacraments requires the ministry of an ordained priest, a priest minister is assigned as the sacramental minister and coworker with the parish life coordinator. Working with the parish life coordinator, the priest minister is scheduled, consulted, and informed of parish sacramental activities and schedules, and is a vitally important member of the parish pastoral leadership.

The parish life coordinator is appointed by the Archbishop through the Priest Personnel Board after a vigorous screening process. The parish life coordinator is responsible and accountable to the priest moderator of pastoral care and the Archbishop in managing the pastoral affairs of the parish. The parish life coordinator is appointed at the discretion of the Archbishop for a designated period of time, normally for three years.

Currently in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis there are only two parish life coordinators. However, there is a pool of qualified candidates available for assignment when parishes become open-listed for parish life coordinators. Also, there is a ongoing application process and lay men and women continue to seek out and apply for this pastoral leadership position in the Archdiocese.

Because this position is a relatively new one in the Church as it develops, we will learn and discover more and more ways to respond to the pastoral challenges of the 20th-century Church as God continues to call and gift people for service, ministry and leadership in the church.
