Decree

Whereas my predecessor, Archbishop Daniel Buechlein, OSB, had instituted a process to assess the pastoral needs of the parishes of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; and

Whereas this process, known as Connected in the Spirit, was designed to consider the needs of the parishes according to deaneries; and

Whereas as it was deemed beneficial to consider the four Indianapolis deaneries, that is the North, West, South, and East deaneries, simultaneously since it was obvious that decisions concerning the parishes of any one of the deaneries would necessarily affect the parishes of the adjoining deaneries; and

Whereas as part of this process information concerning both the current condition of Holy Trinity Parish of Indianapolis, Indiana, and the pastoral needs of the people of the parish was made available to both the Archdiocesan Planning Commission and to myself as the Diocesan Bishop and Ordinary of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; and

Whereas the information concerning the condition of the parish and the pastoral needs of its people demonstrated that:

- Holy Trinity Parish has experienced a significant decline in the number of parishioners;
- the condition of some of the parish buildings has deteriorated significantly;
- the decline in membership and the deterioration of the buildings calls into question the viability of the parish;
- the merger of Holy Trinity Parish into St. Anthony Parish will foster a viable, vibrant Catholic presence in the area currently served by both parishes.

Whereas the planning commission proposed the merger, canonically known as an extinctive union, of Holy Trinity Parish into St. Anthony Parish; and

Whereas the unification of the parishes would allow for stronger evangelization, faith formation, and vocations programs, as well as effective administration and stewardship of the resources of the unified parish; and

Whereas, although such a unification is sufficiently justified for the reasons in rem related above, it also allows for a pastorally necessary allocation of limited resources and personnel, particularly priests; and

Whereas I convened the Archdiocesan Management Council and presented to the Council the findings and recommendations of the Planning Commission; and

Whereas the Management Council recommended that the findings and recommendations of the Commission be accepted and implemented; and

Whereas I convened the Presbyteral Council of the Archdiocese and sought its counsel concerning the manner in which the pastoral needs of the people of Holy Trinity Parish might best be addressed; and

Whereas the Presbyteral Council, after fully considering the issue, recommended by majority vote with one abstention that Holy Trinity Parish be merged into St. Anthony Parish;

I, Joseph Tobin, C.Ss.R., Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, having considered the advice of the Archdiocesan Planning Commission, the Archdiocesan Management Council, and the Archdiocesan Presbyteral Council, and having in mind my responsibility to best meet the spiritual needs of the people of Holy Trinity Parish of Indianapolis in specific and the spiritual needs of the four Indianapolis Deaneries and Archdiocese of Indianapolis generally, now hereby decree that:

1. Holy Trinity Parish of Indianapolis, Indiana is to be merged into St. Anthony Parish of Indianapolis, Indiana on November 30, 2014.
2. The public juridical person of Holy Trinity Parish is to be extinguished on the same date, or, if the matter should be appealed, upon the resolution of any such appeal.
3. Upon the extinction of the public juridical person of Holy Trinity Parish and the unification of its people into St. Anthony Parish, the civil corporation of Holy Trinity Parish shall immediately transfer all assets and liabilities of the corporation, whether legal or equitable, to the civil corporation of St. Anthony Parish.
4. Upon the completion of the transfer of such assets and liabilities, the civil corporation of Holy Trinity Parish shall take such actions at civil law as are necessary to dissolve itself.
5. This decree is to be published to the administrator of Holy Trinity Parish and the pastor of St. Anthony Parish.

6. The parishioners of Holy Trinity Parish and the parishioners of St. Anthony Parish are to be given notice of this decree upon its receipt by the administrator of the parishes. Copies of this decree are to be made available for inspection at the offices of both parishes, and the parishioners shall be given notice as soon as is possible after its receipt by the administrator and the pastor.
7. This decree is to be published in the Archdiocesan newspaper, The Criterion.
8. This decree is to be posted to the website of the Archdiocese.

Given under my hand and the seal of this Archdiocese on this 21st day of May, 2014.
